

ETHICS & INNOVATION IN FOOD SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

In memory of Carlo R. Lerici

Bertinoro (FC), 18th - 19th March 2010

University Residential Center of Bertinoro, Via Frangipane 6

On March 2000, Prof. Carlo R. Lerici, one of the most leading scientist in food science in Italy, passed away. On his memory, in the frame of the Centro Lerici's activities, Carlo's colleagues and friends wish to commemorate his scientific, human and cultural profile, organizing an international Event, recalling Carlo's wide view on scientific and ethical aspects on food production and development.

From 1994, at Residential University Center of Bertinoro take place masters, workshops, meetings and conventions.

"Centro Lerici", born in 2005 on initiative of Residential University Center together with Bologna University, organizes Events on Food Quality and Food Safety.
